

Gardena Valley Baptist Church (GVBC), a multi-ethnic, multi-cultural, multi-generational Christian community in the South Bay area of Los Angeles, is seeking a new Senior Pastor.

GVBC was founded more than 100 years ago as a mission to Japanese immigrants. We continue to worship in two languages, English and Japanese, as we minister to our diverse neighborhood. We invite you to consider, or to invite others to consider, joining our congregation in our mission to help people discover Jesus and become His fully devoted followers.

Candidates interested in the position can begin by visiting GVBC's website (<https://www.gvbc.net/event-details/senior-pastor-application>) and reading the profile offered for prospective applicants. Also, please explore the GVBC website to learn more about our ministries, staff, etc.

To apply for the Senior Pastor position, please download the application available at the above link and submit the completed form plus cover letter and curriculum vitae by June 26, 2022.

Please send any questions regarding the position and the process to the Pastoral Search Committee at GVBCPastoralSearch@gmail.com.
