

First Institutional Baptist Church is looking for a Pastor of Congregational Care – Part Time

Who we are

FIBC is a body of believers who are- believing and living, going and growing, sharing and caring as active witnesses of the Kingdom of God on Earth. With evangelism and discipleship as our top priorities we endeavour to fulfil the Great Commission of our loving and liberating Lord, Jesus Christ. The vision for our church is to become a discipling fellowship through evangelism and emancipation. We spread the love and good news of Christ to all who would believe and work to set people free from whatever might be oppressing them and keeping them from becoming all that God created them to be.

What you'll be doing

The Pastor of Congregational Care is will develop and sustain a variety of ministries designed to support the overall congregational health and wellness of the membership, as well as provide support to families in crises, bereavement, or other emotional upheaval. This Pastor will assist and equip ministry leaders, volunteers, and congregants in becoming lifelong learners through training workshops, small group communities, and initiatives focused on developing disciples.

You will be responsible for...

- Shaping strategy and casting vision for comprehensive, holistic discipleship efforts.
- Leading, supporting and developing ministries to assist in the care of the congregation at large as they deal with life issues.
- Designing and developing processes & systems to reach non-attendees and first-time visitors, as well as enfold new attendees and regular attendees into programming.
- Recruiting & developing Decision Counsellors.
- Recruiting and developing volunteers and lay leaders in the work of shepherding and congregational care.
- Assessing, refining, and developing ministries/events/programs/classes that meet the care & discipleship needs of FIBC.
- Developing the Congregational Care Ministry budget.

What we need from you*

- Minimum bachelor's degree in a discipline related to church ministry, or a comparable degree; seminary degree strongly preferred
- A solid biblical & theological foundation in mainstream Christianity
- Minimum 3 years of relevant experience within a church or faith-based organization
- Spiritual gifts of leadership, shepherding, evangelism, and hospitality

What personal characteristics will you bring to us?

- Evident relationship with Jesus Christ and the heart of a shepherd
- A healthy, vibrant spiritual condition and core values
- An inspirational leader with a passion for leading & building teams, mentoring, and developing volunteers
- Strong initiative and organizational planning skills
- Ability to cast vision, gather support and motivate a team to achieve vision

Want to apply? Get in touch today

*Successful candidates must be able to pass a background check