

First Institutional Baptist Church is looking for a Pastor of Outreach and Justice – Part Time

Who we are

FIBC is a body of believers who are- believing and living, going and growing, sharing and caring as active witnesses of the Kingdom of God on Earth. With evangelism and discipleship as our top priorities, we endeavour to fulfil the Great Commission of our loving and liberating Lord, Jesus Christ. The vision for our church is to become a discipling fellowship through evangelism and emancipation. We spread the love and good news of Christ to all who would believe and work to set people free from whatever might be oppressing them and keeping them from becoming all that God created them to be.

What you'll be doing

The Pastor of Outreach and Justice is responsible for supporting FIBC's vision of becoming a discipling fellowship through evangelism and emancipation via the oversight and execution of the strategic evangelism efforts that engage our congregation and emancipative efforts that support church and community social justice efforts. This Pastor will assist and equip ministry leaders, volunteers, and congregants in becoming effective evangelizers as well as be a liaison from and an organizer within FIBC to keep our congregation involved in social justice and advocacy efforts among our community partners.

You will be responsible for...

- Shaping strategy and casting vision for comprehensive and holistic evangelistic outreach effort.
- Designing and developing processes & systems to reach non-attendees and first-time visitors, as well as enfold new attendees and regular attendees into outreach and social just opportunities.
- Promoting networking and ensures FIBC's ongoing involvement with civic, community service, ecumenical and legislative groups, and other religious associations to advocate for social justice.
- Assessing, refining, and developing ministries/events/ programs that meet the evangelism & justice needs of FIBC.
- Providing all congregants with opportunities to understand why they should evangelize, and offer them various forms of training.
- Developing the Outreach and Justice Ministry budget.
- Recruiting and developing volunteers and lay leaders in the work of evangelistic outreach and justice.

What we need from you*

- Minimum bachelor's degree in a discipline related to church or justice ministry, or a comparable degree; seminary degree strongly preferred
- A solid biblical & theological foundation in mainstream Christianity
- Minimum 3 years of relevant experience within a church or faith-based organization
- Spiritual gifts of leadership, shepherding, evangelism, and hospitality

What personal characteristics will you bring to us?

- Evident relationship with Jesus Christ and the heart of a shepherd
- A healthy, vibrant spiritual condition and core values
- An inspirational leader with a passion for leading & building teams, mentoring, and developing volunteers
- Strong initiative and organizational planning skills
- Ability to cast vision, gather support and motivate a team to achieve vision

Want to apply? Get in touch today

*Successful candidates must be able to pass a background check